On Tuesday Evening there was a Court, when Baron Bunge kissed the King's and Queen's Hand upon being appointed Chancellor of the Court, in the room of Count Duben, now President of the Chamber of Revision.

Their Majesties, with the two youngest Princes, and the Princess Sophia Albertina, are gone to Ulrichsdahl, where they propose to remain a Month, or five Weeks.

M. Bengt Sparre is appointed Minister to the Court of Saxony, and M. Faxel to be Resident at Hamburgh.

Stockholm, September 19. Yesterday there was a Plenum, and his Majesty came to Town to receive the Presentation for a new Senator, in the Room of Admiral Sparre, who has refused to accept that Dignity. Messr. Krusenstierna, Raialin, and Snoilski, were the Persons presented, and the last was nominated by the King.

The House of Nobles agreed also Yesterday to a Resolution of the Deputation of Manufactures, forbidding the Importation of all German Window-Glass, but permitting that from England and France, provided it be in whole Pieces, aud pay a Duty of Thirty-six Dollars Copper for every Basket; but that it shall not be permitted to import it from any Place, after it is cut into Panes.

Rome, September 16. The Inhabitants of this City, and the adjacent Villages, being greatly afflicted with an epidemical Disorder, occasioned by the late excessive Heats, the Pope has sent Deputies into the Country, particularly to Castle Candolfo, (his Country-Seat, where he proposes to pass a few Weeks) to give them all necessary Assistance, so as to prevent that Disorder from spreading.

On the 11th Instant the Pope held a Private Consistory, in which he notified to the College of Cardinals the Jubilee, which is to commence the 17th, and to last a Fortnight.

On the 12th, M. Aspuru, the Spanish Minister, had a long Private Audience of the Pope.

On the 14th, Cardinal de Solis, having taken his Leave of the Pope, and the College of Cardinals, the Foreign Ministers, and the Nobility, set out from hence for Florence, on his Return to Spain, by Way of Parma, Turin, &c. He has presented to M. Lascaris, his Chamberlain, a Gold Snuff-Box, a Coach, and a Pair of Horses; to each of his Gentlemen a Gold Watch; to the Rest of his Servants Money, and to those who attended him here, he continues their Salary to the End of this Year: He has also presented to M. Aghier, who attended him in the Conclave, two Rings set with Brilliants, two Gold Snuff-Boxes, and a Gold Repeating Watch.

On the 15th, the Maltese Ambassador, attended by the Knights of that Order, had a Publick Audience of the Pope, to compliment him, on the Part of the Grand Master, upon his Election to the Pontificate.

Venice, September 22. Last Saturday Night a dreadful Fire broke out here in the Convent of the Servi, supposed to have happened by one of the Friars falling asleep in the Library, and leaving a burning Taper on the Table amongst Books and Papers: It continued burning two or three Days, and destroyed a considerable Part of that large Convent: There were two hundred Butts of Oil in vaulted Magazines just under the Flames, which put the whole City in great Danger and Agitation; but fortunately the Oil was removed in Time, though with considerable Loss to the Proprietors. The greatest Part of the Library, and many Pictures and other Effects of Value, are consumed.
